Montreal, June 1.-The lateest revised figures place the num-ber of dead resulting from the Empress of Ireland wreck at 969, and the number of survivors at 418.

RIMOUSKI, Canada, June1.-Testifying Saturday before the coroner's jury, Capt. Kendall of the Empress of Ireland, said the disaster to his ship was due to the failure of Capt. Thom-as Anderson, master of the Storstadt, to observe his whistle signals. He said, further, that the failure of Capt. Anderson to hold the Storsstadt's nose in the hole she had gashed in the Em press' side had prevented the escape of the people on his ship.

Accident in Early Morning.
RIMOUSKI, Canada, June 1. — The coroner's inquest over the remains of victims of the Empress of Ireland disaster developed that the collision beaster developed that the comission between the liner and the Danish collier Storstadt occurred at 2 o'clock Friday morning in a thick fog. The Empress was bound from Quebec to Liverpool and was making her way slowly down the St. Lawrence in the heavy fog. The Storstadt was coming up stream, heavily laden with coal for Quebec. The Empress sank within 14 or 15 minues after the collision. The sinking was hastened by the explosion that Portland—Portland, 10; Los Angeles, 4.
